

Subject-level change from final exit to fusion

Each bar is one subject's paired accuracy change. Zero means unchanged accuracy.
The reference is F within the same multi-exit model, not an independent single-exit baseline.